TUTICORIN PEARL FISHERY—OCTOBER 1926.

No. 364.—Notice is hereby given that a pearl fishery will take place on a small scale at Tuticorin during October and November 1926. The exact date will be announced prior to commencement. The beds to be fished are Thalayiram par and Kutai par.

2. The fishery will be carried on a small scale by the local divers. It is considered inadvisable to permit foreign divers in view of the unsettled weather that usually occurs during this month, the uncertainty of the fishing days and unhealthy condition of the town at this part of the year.

3. The fishery will be conducted on account of Government and the oysters put up for sale in such lots as may be deemed expedient.

4. Sale of thatti sites will be auctioned about ten days before the commencement of the fishery.

5. There will be no pearl bazaar in the camp and intending pearl merchants should arrange to get suitable shops in the town itself.

6. Payment for oysters should be in cash or in Government of India notes. Drafts on the Imperial Bank of India and other bank agencies will also be received on letters of credit being produced to warrant the drawing of such drafts.

7. Further particulars may be obtained from the Superintendent, Pearl and Chank Fisheries, Tuticorin. Pearl valuation notices will be issued prior to the commencement of the fishery.

No. 1228.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 230 of the Madras City Municipal Act, 1919, and in supersession of the rules published in notification No. 1035 on pages 569—573 of Part I-A of the Fort St. George Gazette, dated 25th November 1919, the Government make the annexed rules to regulate the construction of buildings in the city.

No piece of land shall be used as a site for the construction of a building—

Conditions as to the use of building sites. Abutting on open space.

(1) if the Commissioner considers that the site is insanitary or that it is dangerous to construct a building on it;

(2) if the building is to abut on a street, unless the site is of such a shape that the face of the building can be made parallel to the line of the street, or as nearly parallel to the said line as the Commissioner may allow;

Sites near tanks.

(3) if the site is within thirty feet of a tank, unless the owner satisfies the Commissioner that he will take such measures as will prevent any risk of the domestic drainage of the building passing into the tank; and

(4) if the construction of the building thereon is for public worship which, in the opinion of the Council, will wound the religious feelings of any class of persons in the vicinity thereof;

Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Council may, within a month of the communication to him of such decision, appeal against it to the Local Government who may pass such orders as they may deem fit.

(5) if the building to be constructed is a public building, a dwelling house or a hut,

(a) unless the site is certified by the Engineer to be dry and well drained or to be capable of being well-drained, and

(b) if the site is a filled-up tank or has been filled up with or used for depositing rubbish, offensive matter or sewage, unless the Health Officer has examined the site and granted a certificate to the effect that it is, from a sanitary point of view, fit to be built upon.

Part I.—Buildings generally.

Level of floor.

2 The ground floor of every building constructed or reconstructed from the ground level shall be constructed and placed at such level as will admit of

(a) the construction of a drain sufficient for the effectual drainage of the building into some public drain or sewer at the time existing or projected, and

(b) the provision of the requisite communication with some sewer into which the drainage of the building may lawfully be discharged at a point in the upper half of such sewer or other drainage system into which its drainage may lawfully be discharged.

Distance between building line and street alignment.

3 The distance between the building line and the street alignment shall not be less than four feet.

Part II.—Buildings other than huts generally.

Foundations.

4 (1) Unless the Commissioner sanctions otherwise—

(a) the foundation of a building shall rest on natural ground;

(b) the spread of the foundation shall be such that the pressure on the soil, taking into account the load on the floors and terrace roof (if any) referred to in rules 9 and 11, shall not be greater than one ton on the square foot.

(2) The levels of the foundation must be such as the Commissioner may consider satisfactory.

Plinth.

5 The plinth of buildings other than stables and cowsheds shall be at least two feet above the level of the centre of the nearest street. The plinth of stables and cow-sheds shall be at least one foot above such level.

Outer walls.

6. Except in cases where permission has been obtained from the Commissioner, the outer walls of a building shall be constructed of brick or some other hard and incombustible substance.

Bonding of walls.

7. All walls of a building must be properly bonded.

8. (1) If a masonry building exceeds one storey in height—

(a) every wall must be solidly put together with—

(i) mortar compounded with good cement and sand or other suitable material, or

(ii) mortar compounded with good lime and sand or other suitable material;

(b) the proportions of the materials forming such mortar must be such as are approved by the Commissioner;

(c) no part of any wall other than a cornice or moulding shall overhang any part of a wall underneath it; and

(d) every wall shall be of such thickness as the Commissioner may consider necessary to ensure safety, regard being had to the height of the building, the materials of which it is constructed and the purpose for which it is intended to be used.

(2) Nothing contained in sub-rule (1) shall prevent the placing of a second storey upon a building constructed before the coming into force of these rules the walls of which are certified by the Engineer to the Corporation to be fit to bear the load proposed to be put upon them.

Floors.

9. The floors of every building must be constructed to bear safely the maximum load to be carried, the allowance for live load not being less than 56 lb. on the square foot.

Beams and girders.

10. (1) All beams and girders in a building must be supported by a breadth of brick work stone or other solid substance sufficient to secure their stability.

(2) The bearing of a beam or girder on a wall shall not, without the sanction of the Commissioner, be less than three-fourths of the thickness of the wall.

Terrace roofs.

11. Terrace-roofs must be constructed to withstand such load, not less than 40 lb. on the square foot, in addition to their own weight, as may be specified by an order of the Commissioner.

Part III.—Dwelling houses and other domestic buildings.

Maximum height of buildings.

12. (1) Except with the written permission of the Commissioner, no building shall be erected or raised to a greater height than 60 feet as measured from the level of the centre of the street in front.

(a) In the case of a pitched roof, up to the tie beam of the roof.

(b) In the case of flat roof, up to the surface of the roof.

(2) In the case of a pitched roof, the roof above that height shall rise at an angle of not more than 45 degrees.

(3) In the case of a flat roof, a parapet of not more than three feet in height may be constructed above the maximum height specified in sub-rule (1).

Height of buildings with reference to width of streets.

13. Subject to the maximum prescribed by rule 12 and the exceptions specified below, the height to which a building may be erected or raised shall be regulated by the width of the street on which it abuts in accordance with the following rules, namely :—

(1) If the width of the street does not exceed 26 feet, the building shall not be erected or raised to a height greater than one and a half times the width of the street.

(2) If the width of the street exceeds 26 feet but does not exceed 40 feet, the building shall not be erected or raised to a height greater than 40 feet.

(3) If the width of the street exceeds 40 feet, the building shall not be erected or raised to a height greater than the width of such street.

The Standard Barometer and Thermometers are read at 8 a.m., 10 a.m., 4 p.m. and 8 p.m. and the daily means are obtained by the application of hourly corrections, deduced from twenty years' observations. The cistern of the Barometer is twenty-two feet above the level of the sea, and the receiver of the Rain Gauge is two feet from the ground. The wind, rain and general weather registered are for the current civil day—from midnight to midnight.

The total quantity of rain collected since 1st January is 18·12 inches, the average due for the same period being 30·58 inches.
